3. Who or what has had the greatest influence on your faith? (Other, please specify)

Always had the faith.

Cardinal Egan's day retreat showed me how lukewarm I was in my faith. I have changed that.

Catholic and Christian media, family, friend, Catholic schools, mass

Catholic education and family religious examples

Catholic schools/parents/church

Charismatic renewal, Bible, greater appreciation of Mass and sacraments.

Ewtn

God, Jesus, Holy Spirit, Guardian Angel

God, Jesus, the Blessed Mother and many saints.

I was born into the religion, so the constant exposure to the religion throughout 12 years of school.

My Catholic upbringing. Parents and Catholic schools

My husband

My parents

My school upbringing, certain nuns, priests and grace and miracles bestowed on my family

My upbringing by my parents and the education from 5th to 8th grade.

Nothing left in the world to positively influence faith.

Nuns in grade school. Ans. to #2: He is my Savior and Creator; I am his servant!

Nuns that were my teachers in grade school

Probably the saints and holy priests

Rosary meditations listened to online

The Bible, Adoration & Hallows Bible in a year has been HUGE

4. [If NOT growing in faith per Q1] What is your biggest challenge with growing in faith? (Other, please specify)

A mix of several of the above. As a new mom with limited time and handling a toddler time is always limited and not on my schedule. I also feel very lost v

All of the above. Mostly my own selfishness and pride. Only going to God when I need something and ignoring him when I want to do what ever I want.

All the unnecessary changes made at the parish

Being informed of changes within the parish/school decisions and why they're being made.

Changes and inconsistency in the Catholic Church

Fear

How to pray

I am a sinner with many flaws that impeded my growth in faith that I continually struggle with and have to overcome in order to grow in my faith.

I don't feel our priests tackle hard subjects that we deal with daily

Issues within the Catholic as an institution. I grew up being taught to follow in faith and to ignore the issues within the institution. As an adult I was faced v

Lack of dogma (or watered down versions) taught in homilies homiles and advocated by pastor lack of no organ music! we have obscure hymns people can't sing played on a dancehall piano!

Mass is not a concert! The hymns sung should be as written in the books in the pew. The hymn before Mass should be sung so that the words are unde

My husband

My parish is only concerned with one sector and has forgotten about the rest.

MY past keeps nagging

No challenge

None

Physical pain

Possibly some of all the above choices.

Questioning whether there really is a God/hereafter

Rudeness of Pastor has caused me to feel a distance to the church

The changes that are being made at Saint Columbkille. The Arise team is like a cult dictating our worship service. Their attitude is like it or leave.

The church not stressing and making important the unchanging teachings and Traditions of the church

The Pope is a communist. College of Cardinals are actually worse. Church will not rebuke public figures like Biden, Pelosi, Comey, Colbert, etc. who wear

Walking in faith and knowing how to talk to god

Geared towards couples & families
Have no say in the direction of what the parish can do for me. Priests seem isolated to the parish grounds and do not get out in the community. Never see
