

Virtual Ministry Calls for Celebration!

While we may not be worshipping in person just yet, our ministry hasn't stopped finding ways to continue fellowshiping with each other and reaching out through virtual worship services, small groups, and Bible studies. These virtual options called for new software and equipment. And we couldn't have done it without you! Thanks to your faithful prayers and financial support this year, we could meet those needs and continue our ministry. Please prayerfully consider making an online gift at or text gift by texting and amount to

to continue supporting our ministry through the New Year.